

10th July 2014

Email from Fiona Coulson to Christopher Maguire

We have not been able to meet with the planners yet unfortunately but my architect has had a telephone conversation which has given us some indication of their views.

I intend to mark up a plan which can be taken to the meeting next week so at least people are aware of the sites proposed and will give my email address so that comments on these can be fed back to me.

Fiona Coulson
Assistant Development Director
07818 076438