Dear Friends

We know from his published Journal that about noon on Tuesday the 3rd of February 1761, John Wesley preached at Harston, "where (they) gathered from all parts. On the evening on the same day, he preached at Melbourn, "and (many) from Harston walked thither and from the neighbouring villages". Wesley then added "and surely God was in the midst of them". It is likely that people from Newton were among Wesley's listeners that day at either Harston or Melbourn or indeed both.

Then and now, the people of Newton, in terms of showing forth God in our midst, would do well to live in accordance with John Wesley's Rule for Christian Living; Do all the Good You Can, By All the Means You Can, In All the Ways You Can, In All the Places You Can, At All the Times You Can, To All the People You Can As long as Ever You Can".

With love and prayers,

Brigid
